GREETINGS WINE CLUB MEMBERS!

Is it really February already? Boy, how time flies when you're drinking wine. Right now, we are concentrating on pruning the vineyards and bottling wine. With bud break only a couple months away, we have to be ready for the season to begin. It would be nice to get some rain to prepare for the growing season, but we sure are enjoying the 70 + degree weather we have been having lately,

We are also excited about receiving a lot of REALLY great scores from some pretty influential wine writers. To name a few...Wine Enthusiast, 97 Points, 92 Points from Robert Parker and Wine Spectator, 93 Points all for the 05 Padrone. We are very thankful for this wave of good press.

For now, ride the wave with us and enjoy your wines. Cheers!

- Ryan Shenk, Wine Club Manager

Signorello Vineyards Estate wines have received awards of excellence, high scores and reviews that make their wines among Napa Valley's most consistently lauded in 2008.

Given the wide range of palates that exist among wine reviewers, this is a rare accomplishment. From the Wine Spectator and Wine Enthusiast to the Wine News, Decanter and The Wine Advocate (Robert Parker), the wine media was unanimous in their praise for the work of the winemaking team at Signorello Vineyards across all varietals.

The winery's highest scores were received by Signorello's flagship Cabernet, Padrone, which was named one of the top 10 wines in the world today. The winery's estate-grown Cabernet Sauvignon Estate also received exceptional recognition. But the praise lavished on Signorello Vineyards was not limited to its red wine production. The estate-grown Vieilles Vignes Chardonnay Estate also received high marks and the Seta, a white Bordeaux-style blend, was among the best reviewed white wines in the United States. Proprietor Ray Signorello Jr. finds these reviews deeply gratifying. "These are the finest reviews received across the board in the history of the winery" notes Ray. "They speak volumes about our vision to produce the finest quality wines from our Estate as well as the talent and dedication of our winemaking team."

Pick up some of these wines today. They are selling quickly and will not be available much longer. Go to www.signorellovineyards.com or call (707) 255-5990 to place your order. Remember, as a wine club member, you will always receive a 15% discount!
